

VFW POST 1037
Minutes for June 4, 2018

OPENING CEREMONIES:

The Commander and the Chaplain led us in the opening ceremonies.

JOINT MEETING WITH THE LADIES AUXILIARY:

Items that were brought up in the joint meeting are as follows:

Car Show: We to work on the schedule for our work days for June 18-22. We will have soda and water on hand for the workers. The work day for June 18 will be from 3:00pm to whenever we are done. Help is needed form now to up to the start of the show. You can work on the grounds at anytime from 7:00 to whenever. Just need to sign in at the grounds for the VFW. We would also like to get the Ladies Auxiliary involved to help us out as some of you can operate the computer to enter the car information.

Strawberry Fest: You can register on the internet for the festival for June 16.

Poppy Sales: Starts on July 3rd at the various places throughout the city. If you want a spot you can call Sherry Werner or Charlotte Onsgard, July 4th Parade: Meet at the corner by the Plant #1 around 09:00 so we know who we have to march. We also need more marchers for the Auxiliary so if you have grand kids who want to march the Auxiliary has shirt for you to wear. After the parade we will again meet at Simpson for cocktails.

Darlene Abrahamson gave a presentation on the Band of Brothers and they will purchase a legacy stone for her late husband Gene Abrahamson at the High Ground on June 16th at 1:00pm.

Holly Bacon who is Alicia Hansen daughter gave a presentation on the Dream Flights that will occur at the Waupaca Airport on June 21,. These flights are for the veterans that are currently in a home such as King. She is asking for a donation to help them out on the cost of the planes. No action was taken.

Lambeau Field: All the students who have made over $600.00 working at the Packers nights, we will now have to fill out the 1099 forms for each kid. There was some discussion on how to get around from filling out the forms, but the state has too many watchdogs out there.

LADIES AUXILIARY has some calendars that run for 3 months at a time and they go for $20.00 each. These calendars pay out every day. Joint meeting adjourned.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT: Need to reinstate Steve Cruz to our Post.

COMMUNICATIONS: Received a thank you note from the family of Richard Wanserski for the honors that we did for her uncle Richard. It was a pleasure to meet the honors team on May 18 at the cemetery at King. Thank you Linda Check.
